Mr. George H. Wilder of Burlington. who has summer classes in Randolph and Waterbury, will stop off each Tuesday in Quincy, Milford and Cambridge the evening at Montpelier and remain until granite cutters' trade, which he had Wednesday afternoon during the summer to teach his Barre pupils who have the past season been coming to Burlington for instruction. All available time is now taken in Randolph and Waterbury, but a few half hours are still open in Mont-pelier. If interested, write Wilder School street, or see Fred Inglis, 7 Clark street, Barre, Vt., or see Paul Simanton, flutist. Park theatre, Barre, Vt. Pupils may start at any time. Terms reasonable,—

Four arrests were made for intoxica tion through the week-end and this morn ng when Magisrate H. W. Scott had ad ourned the Monday session of city court three respondents had received jail sentences. Lobina Patterson of Waterbury wanted by the police since last November for an alleged furnishing offense, pleaded guilty to the charge and will serve three onths in the house of codrection at Rutland. He was arrested by Chief Sin clair on a complaint made to Grand Jur or Wishart. William Burke of Graniteville paid a $5 fine and costs for a first George Farnham of Orange, listed as an habitual, acknowledged a subsequent offense and will serve 30 days in the county jail in addition to paying a $15 fine and costs. Thomas Smith of Lebanon, N. H., admitting a first offense, went to jail for 10 days. Oscar Swensky Graniteville pleaded guilty to being an habitual drunkard and paid a $15 fine ham of Portland, Me. Interest in Barre's observance of Independence day centers largely around the Shriners' picnic at the Granite City park and the Bonaccord field at Caledonia park. At the Ayers street grounds there will be baseball in the forenoon, a tug of war, baseball in the afternoon and horse races. The Montpelier Military band will give a concert in the morn ing and play again in the afternoon. Elaborate preparations for the Bonaccord's annual have been made and a special train leaving Barre at 10:50 will facilitate the transportation of pienickers to Caledonia. For the most part granite manufacturers here suspended operations for the week, although some of their number will be doing business Wednesday morning. Stores will be closed and the usual holiday hours wai be ob-# served at the postoffice. An extra detail of police will be on duty to-night, "the night before," and as the customary restrictions on the sale of fireworks are in force Barre may well look forward to a safe and sane Fourth.

At 2 o'clock Thursday, July 6, the ivic department of the Barre Woman's lub will open their second flower show in the Church street school building, using the same room in which the peony w was held last week.
